

Pierrot, Dog Of Belgium

Walter Alden Dyer

This 1915 novella was published as the First World War raged. Belgium lies bleeding. Across the winter seas we have heard the wailing of men and women among their ruined homes – honest townsfolk, simple Walloon and Flemish peasants, who had borne no malice and had done no wrong. And amid the cries of anguish and despair there have come to me the weeping of a little girl named Lisa and the voice of a faithful dog whining for his master.
